

Barrington Tops

Moonan Outlook

Elevation 1298 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.932947
Longitude: 151.346664

Access via car

Distance from Gloucester 80km

The lookout at Moonan is located 80kms from Gloucester on the western edge of the Barrington Plateau. Moonan lookout offers magnificent views over the Liverpool Ranges and the rugged escarpment into the Hunter Valley. Moonan Outlook is outside the Barrington Tops National Park and within the Stewarts Brook State Forest.

Short trip along Boundary Road just before the Dingo Gate leads to Gologlies Creek picnic site. Please close the Dingo Gate after you!

The Buccan Buccans Gloucester

Accessible via a challenging walking track. The panoramic views over the Gloucester Valley are spectacular and well worth the effort.

The Buccan Buccans are the rocky outcrops that lay directly beside Gloucester and known locally as The Bucketts.

Revered by the indigenous peoples for thousands of years, the Buccan Buccans provide walkers with an outlook where they can sit and appreciate the beauty of the region.

Gloucester Tops

Andrew Laurie Lookout

Elevation 1298 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.932947
Longitude: 151.346664

Access via car

Distance from Gloucester 58km

You'll find the Andrew Laurie Lookout along the Gloucester Falls walking track. The track leads through sub-alpine woodlands of snow gums to the lookout, where you can gaze at the Gloucester River and across to the gorges and mountaineer peak in the east. A second lookout takes in the Gloucester Falls, where the river plunges over the plateau into the valley below, the twin drops are breathtaking after rain.

Gloucester

Visitor Information Centre

Latitude: -32.002610 Longitude: 151.573190

Altitude: 96 metres

27 Denison Street Gloucester 2422

New South Wales

AUSTRALIA

02 6538 5252

vic.information@MidCoast.nsw.gov.au

www.gloucestertourism.com.au

Lookouts

Barrington Tops Gloucester region

Gloucester

Mount Mograni Lookout

Elevation 175 metres

GPS-DD Latitude. -31.991584
Longitude. 151.99807

Access via car

Distance from Gloucester 5km

Mograni lookout is located 5km north east of Gloucester along the Bucketts Way, driving toward Taree. You'll find excellent views over the Gloucester Valley looking toward the Bucketts. Facilities include directions and distance indicator, BBQ and picnic area.

Gloucester

Kia-Ora Lookout

Elevation 188 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.962531
Longitude: 151.948334

Access via car

Distance from Gloucester 7km

Kia-Ora is situated to the north west of Gloucester offering views over the Gloucester and Barrington Valleys taking in the Barrington Tops in the distance. To get there travel north along the Thunderbolts Way toward Barrington Village. Turn right on to Bowman Farm Road. Turn right onto Kia-Ora Road. Take a sharp left onto Lookout Road. Facilities include BBQ area and picnic tables.

Lemans Lookout

Elevation 99 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -32.003392
Longitude: 151.959222

Access via car or walking

Location in town northern end of Church Street (main street)

Closed until further notice Lemans lookout provides a scenic vista to the Gloucester River onto the Lemans Flat. There is seating available with steps leading down to the river.

Barrington Tops

Thunderbolt's Lookout

Elevation 1436 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.915592
Longitude: 151.505163

Access via a short 10 minute walking track

Distance from Gloucester 55km

Considered by some to be one of the best lookouts on the Barrington Plateau, the views from Thunderbolt's lookout are magnificent. The lookout is named after Captain Thunderbolt, an infamous bushranger who frequented the region.

You'll find the lookout along the unsealed Barrington Forest Road (Scone Road), be sure to check with Gloucester Visitor Information Centre regarding condition of the road before departing. A short walk through the snow gums, beech trees and wild flowers will take you to the knoll. Be sure to look up as you may see a wedge-tailed eagle circling in the thermals above.

Devil's Hole Lookout

Elevation 1378 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.918194
Longitude: 151.484422

Access Via sealed walking track 200m - disabled access.

Distance from Gloucester 65km

Devil's Hole Lookout is an easily accessed viewing platform with a sealed pathway to the lookout. On a clear day you can see the coast, which is 90km to the east. Devil's Hole gives you a glimpse of the spectacular wilderness of the Barrington. Facilities at Devil's Hole include toilets and picnic tables.

Barrington Tops con't

Carey's Peak Lookout

Elevation 1456 Metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -32.048611
Longitude: 151.451111

Access via 19km walking track - Link Trail

Distance from Gloucester 70km

Carey's Peak is accessible via 'Link Trail' at Gloucester Tops, or if you're after a challenge the 'Corker Trail' - 10km straight up the side of the mountain. Carey's Peak can also be accessed from Barrington Trail via Carey's Peak trail. The views from Carey's Peak are spectacular, looking south over the Hunter Valley you're above the clouds. Truly magic.

Thunderbolts Way

Carson's Pioneer Lookout

Elevation 936 metres

GPS-DD Latitude: -31.655875
Longitude: 151.809275

Access Via car

Distance from Gloucester 45km

Carson's lookout is located on Thunderbolts Way approximately 45km north of Gloucester. Named after Gloucester resident Eric Carson (1913-1999), a member of the team who built the first road up the mountain in 1961. The original road was only 32kms long. Gloucester Rotary Club constructed the lookout to commemorate the achievements of the men who blazed this route up the mountain to the north west and New England. Carson's lookout offers panoramic views over Giro, Barrington Tops State Forests and the Barrington Tops World Heritage area. Picnic facilities and toilets.